Ruthless Trust by Brennan Manning

Chapter 11

The Geography of Nowhere

When you were a child, what activity could you find yourself absorbed in for hours?

Manning says, “being fully present in the now is perhaps the premier skill of the spiritual life.”

How accomplished are you in this skill?

To you, which interferes more to being fully present in the now - the future or the past?

Manning says that standing stubbornly in Nowhere is an “act of unflappable trust in the presence of God”.

What does he mean by this?

Do you have concerns about your spiritual condition? What are they?

What does Manning say about the relationship of Nowhere to our concerns?

What are you on the way to right now?
